4% of goes back to the local neighborhood

At its core, Flower Power Dispensers is designed to give back, with 4% of our tax revenue going to the local community. We are creating job opportunities, hiring locally, and contributing to economic growth. That's why we're asking you to become our Puff Partner on this Joint Venture.

As our Puff Partner, you could (recommended):

1. Offer your customers X% off one purchase in-store or delivery or an additional stamp on their loyalty card if they show a FPD receipt within the past 30 days.
2. Get assigned a unique referral code and earn based on how many customers you send our way.

At FPD, we envision a future where cannabis is destigmatized, local businesses thrive, and our community prospers. Join us in our mission to create a robust economy and foster inclusivity on the Upper West Side. Help us spread the word and bring pot to the people.

Why FPD?

POT WITH A PURPOSE: JUSTICE

Our owner Angelo Kitkas is a CAURD licensee, pioneering the opening of legal adult-use cannabis sales in New York and championing businesses owned by justice-involved individuals. Learn more about Angelo on our website.

EDUCATING THE PUBLIC

We are leveraging local media platforms to share stories about FPD and the benefits of legal cannabis consumption, hosting launch and promotional events, and partnering with local institutions and businesses to spread awareness.
